

Cambridge Artists' Cooperative Jury Application Procedures

Cambridge Artists' Cooperative (CAC) is a fine craft gallery located in the vibrant retail district of Harvard Square, Cambridge, Massachusetts. CAC carries an eclectic array of fine craft, created by over 250 artists, living and working in the United States. CAC is entering its eighteenth year with a brisk business selling to a customer base of local professionals, and American and international tourists. We have received the NICHE "Top Retailer of American Craft for 2006, NICHE "Top 10 Retailer of American Craft for 2000 and 2005", NICHE "Top 100 Retailer of American Craft for 1999, 2002, 2003, and 2004", "Best of Boston - Best Crafts 1999" by BOSTON Magazine, and "Best Craft Gallery 1999" by the TAB Reader's Choice Poll. We have been featured in Yankee Magazine, Crafts Report, NICHE Magazine and American Style.

Artist owned and operated, the spacious three-level gallery sells work exclusively on consignment. CAC awards a 50% commission on all sales. Our full-time manager and professional sales staff use a computerized point-of-sale inventory control system. Commission checks are mailed with an itemized sales report within the first week of every month.

All work is selected by a jury of current members who review new work on the second Tuesday of each month (except November and December when there is no jury). Work is evaluated on the basis of originality of design, craftsmanship, marketability, and appropriateness for CAC. Work is accepted for a minimum two-month trial period.

Application Procedure

Applications are accepted until 6:00 PM on the second Tuesday of the month. Your submissions may be picked up no earlier than the first Thursday following the jury and no later than the second Thursday following the jury unless prior arrangements are made.
